IDAHO GENERAL MINES ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF DAN ZANG AS CONTROLLER AND SETH FOREMAN AS DIRECTOR OF INVESTOR RELATIONS.

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON – July 10, 2007, Idaho General Mines (AMEX: GMO) today announced the appointment of Dan Zang as Controller and Seth Foreman as Director of Investor Relations. Mr. Zang joins the Company from Hubble Homes in Meridian, Idaho, where he served as Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Zang has also held executive finance positions at PeopleSoft/J.D. Edwards and Cyprus Minerals Company and holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Illinois. Mr. Foreman joins the Company from Newmont Mining in Denver, Colorado, where he served as Manager of Investor Relations. Mr. Foreman also served as Manager of Strategic Communications and Public Affairs at Newmont and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Bucknell University. Kenneth Rux, who has served as Idaho General's Controller for the previous year, will continue with the Company as Director of Sarbanes – Oxley Compliance.

Bruce D. Hansen, Chief Executive Officer said, "The addition of Dan and Seth to our Management team is an important step as we continue to build an experienced and professional staff. Dan's experience as division controller of Cyprus Copper is especially pertinent as Cyprus was once a top three molybdenum producer, including production at the deposit now known as Idaho General's Hall-Tonopah project. The addition of Seth as a full-time Investor Relations professional is critical to the Company's goal of expanding and attending to our growing investor base."
